The application round for the Nordplus Adult programme in the spring of 2010 is now terminated and the result is that 44 new Nordic-Baltic initiatives now can get started.

To the deadline in March 2010 69 applications were submitted applying for a total of 3.2 mio euro. As only a little more than 1 mio euro was available, the competition was quite strong.

The 44 approved projects stems from all parts of the field for adult learning, ranging from formal adult education to informal learning, from liberal education to vocational training for adults.
