

Call for Proposals Nordplus Framework Programme 2010

Support for cooperation in the area of education in the Nordic and Baltic countries

The Nordic Council of Ministers has established The Nordplus Framework Programme for the 4-year period 2008-2011. The programme shall promote quality and innovation in the education systems in the Nordic and Baltic countries by supporting many types of exchanges, projects and networks. All cooperation activities must be based on agreements between educational institutions and organisations from the participating countries. The total budget for The Nordplus Framework Programme in 2010 is 60 907 051 DKK/approximately 8 million Euro.

The Nordplus Framework Programme contains 4 sub-programmes now inviting applications within given main objectives and main priorities (see under).

In addition to objectives and priorities for each sub-programme, climate issues have been decided as an overarching priority for the Nordplus Framework Programme in 2010.

Nordplus Junior

- Shall strengthen and develop cooperation between the participating countries in the area of school education and shall support networks of pre-schools, primary and secondary schools (general or vocational).
- Will in 2010 give priority to cooperation activities within the following areas and themes: quality in education, vocational education, health, prevention of drop-out, entrepreneurship and multicultural classrooms.

Nordplus Higher Education

- Shall contribute to cooperation between higher education institutions in the participating countries and to the establishment of networks for exchange and dissemination of experiences, best practices and innovative results.
- Shall also contribute to cooperation between higher education institutions and other institutions or organisations working in the area of higher education.
- Will in 2010 give priority to cooperation activities within the following areas and themes: Development of Joint Study Programmes, Curriculum Development projects and quality assurance work in higher education. Renewal and enlargement of networks to include new partners, especially from the new participating countries, is also a prioritised area.

Nordplus Adult Learning

- Shall contribute to cooperation and networking between contributors to adult learning (education institutions as well as enterprises, organisations and NGOs) in order to promote the development of quality and innovation in all adult learning.
- Will in 2010 give priority to cooperation activities within the following areas and themes: Adults' basic skills and language skills, the recognition and validation of skills, challenges of modern citizenship (e.g. environmental awareness, climate issues and entrepreneurship), strengthening of social cohesion in education, and interplay between companies and institutions concerning adult education and training. Applications focusing on the motivation of vulnerable groups are given priority, as are new applicants and partnerships, applications covering new issues, problems, methods and solution models. Projects that are cross-sectoral within the sector of adult learning and/or cross-organisational will also be prioritised.

Nordplus Horizontal

- Shall contribute to cooperation between the educational sectors and shall support cross-sectoral networks and projects.
- Will in 2009 give priority to cooperation activities within the following areas and themes: Cross-sectoral cooperation within the areas and themes given priority in the 3 sectoral sub-programmes, the development of good quality and innovation in the educational systems and cross-sectoral cooperation on teacher education and pedagogical methods that may involve schools, institutions and organisations for adult learning, higher education and research as well as enterprises.

All applications should be submitted through the online application system ARS, available at <http://ars.norden.org>. For further instructions, please see www.nordplusonline.org.

Application deadline for all parts of The Nordplus Framework Programme
1 March 2010